

What do we suggest for your cat?

Recommended for 1st kitten visit: 8-11 weeks of age

- Wellness Examination
- FVRCP+C vaccination (Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis, Calicivirus, Panleukopenia, and Chlamydia)
- Felv (Feline Leukemia Virus vaccination)
- Triple test– Tests your kitten for Leukemia, Immunodeficiency Virus and Heartworm disease
- Fecal Exam– To check for intestinal parasites
- Dewormer– sent to treat most common parasites that kittens carry

Recommended for 2nd kitten visit: 12-15 weeks of age

- Wellness Examination
- FVRCP+C vaccination
- Felv vaccination
- Rabies vaccination- 1 year
- Fecal Exam– To check for intestinal parasites
- Dewormer- sent to treat most common parasites that kittens carry

Recommended annually for indoor cats

- Wellness Examination
- FVRCP+C vaccination
- Rabies vaccination- 1 or 3 year depending on your pet's vaccine history
- Bloodwork panel– Recommended based on your pet's age to determine the health of internal organs and early detection of disease
- Fecal Exam– To check for intestinal parasites

Recommended annually for outdoor cats

- Wellness Examination
- FVRCP+C vaccination
- Felv vaccination
- Triple test
- Bloodwork panel
- Fecal Exam– To check for intestinal parasites
- Dewormer– sent to treat common parasites that outdoor cats can carry